HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1907.

No. 45.

Great Union Service At the Tabernacle.

Will Preach Three Sermons To-morrow.

FAREWELL SERMON.

Has Taken About 20 New Members, Into Baptist Church.

Rev. Geo. W. McPherson will conduct a union service at the tabernacle to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock, at the request of the ministers of the city.

The subject of his discourse will be "Vital Questions" and he should be heard by every man in Hopkinsville. While his sermon will not be for the men alone, it is one that all men and boys especially should hear.

The services at the Baptist church have continued every night this week, but there will be no meeting tonight.

Since Dr. McPherson came here the first of February there have been eighteen additions to the church, eight by letter and ten for baptism. Others will join tomorrow.

The services Sunday will be the last Dr. McPherson will hold before departing for his home in New York. The subject in the morning will be "Good Fellowship" and at night there will be a grand rally and leaving-taking.

Dr. McPherson has supplied the pulpit for two and a half months and has endeared himself to the entire church. He is a preacher of great ability, a pulpit orator of wonderful power and a gentleman of most attractive personality. He has been called to one or more of the best churches in Kentucky and it is hoped by all of the Hopkinsville Baptists that he may come to Kentucky and that they may have frequent opportunities to hear him. In returning to his work in New York City, he will take with him the friendship and the prayers of hundreds of the best people of Hopkinsville, of all denominations.

GONE TO FRANKFORT

To Protest Against the Raise of Five Per Cent.

County Attorney Jno. C. Duffy, Esq., J. F. Dixon and Deputy Assessor R. A. Cook went to Frankfort Thursday to appear before the State Board of Equalization and protest against the contemplated raise of five per cent. on the assessment of personal property subject to equalization and on farm lands.

The assessment this year was already much higher than it was last year and the committee will try to save the people from an unnecessary burden.

CLOTHES CAUGHT

And Child Was Burned to Death.

The five-year old daughter of Joe Hutcherson, col., who resides about five miles south of the city, near Hargis' bridge, was burned to death Thursday. Her clothes caught from a fire-place and she was horribly burned, dying in great agony.

Another Frost.

Another big frost Thursday night March and April seem to have swapped places on the calendar. The weather clerk, who pulled the wool over the eyes of the people for three weeks in March, seems to have gone over to the side of the coal dealers and fires have to be kept running now as if this were mid-winter. Early gardens have been partially ruined and—well, there's no use mentioning the fruit crop.

PAT DALTON DEAD.

Expired Yesterday, After Illness of Three Months.

Patrick Dalton died at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the Mitchell boarding house on South Main, after an illness of three months of stomach trouble. He was a native of Ireland and was seventy-four years old. He had been a resident of this city about eighteen years, having come here from Nashville. For several years Mr. Dalton was in the employ of the L. & N. railroad in the local yards and had charge of the engine of the Nashville Accommodation at night. He served through the Civil war in the Federal army and was a pensioner. Mr. Dalton leaves considerable property. He was a very liberable man and on several occasions sent money to relatives in Ireland, one donation last year amounting to $1,000. He was a member of the Catholic church. He leaves no relatives here, but has a brother who resides in Nashville, Tenn. His wife died about four years ago. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Father Welsh and the interment will take place in Nashville, Monday. Father Welsh and Mr. T. E. Lawson will accompany the remains to their last resting place.

MRS. HOPSON

Died at Memphis Wednesday night.

Information was reached here yesterday of the death of Mrs. Mary Hopson, widow of the late Dr. W. H. Hopson, which occurred at Memphis Wednesday night.

The deceased was the daughter of the late W. M. Shipp, who was one of the best known and wealthy men of the county. Mrs. Hopson's first husband was Mr. Wilson, to whom she bore two children. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Henry O'Neill, with whom she has made her home since Dr. Hopson's death, a year or more ago.

Mrs. Hopson was a woman well known for her intelligence and kindness of heart, and in her younger days was prominent in local society. She was an invalid for some time before her death, but had every care and attention that a loving daughter and son-in-law could bestow. She was about 75 years of age. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Wm. Withers, of California and Mrs. O'Neill. She was a devoted member of the Episcopal church, having united with Grace church in her girlhood. The remains were brought here for interment yesterday morning.

DIED IN FLORIDA.

Christian County Man Succumbs to Consumption.

Information was received here Thursday of the death of Mr. Hugh Embry at Dade City, Fla., which occurred about ten days since. The deceased was a native of this county, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Embry. His death was due to consumption. He was only 27 years of age and was a most excellent Christian character, and during his long illness never complained, and just before breathing his last he called his mother to his side and said: "Mother the time has come for me to leave you and I have no fear of death." The burial took place at Dade City.

AT PADUCAH.

Tomorrow Rural Letter Carriers Meet For Business.

As Uncle Sam's rural carriers are allowed a rest on Sunday, a large number of them will gather at Paducah to-morrow and organize. The object of the meeting is to grant a charter to the carriers of this county, thus admitting them into the State Association. Mr. Edgar Bradshaw will represent the carriers of Christian in the meeting. Besides a good time generally those in attendance will partake of a grand dinner, after which those who are gifted in oratory will dilate on the glory and strength of the government they so faithfully serve, as well as the American Eagle, which protects females, males and mails alike all over this grand republic—when the trusts don't bother it too much.

In Nashville.

Mr. Max Lowenthal is in Nashville, where he went Thursday to submit to an operation for chronic trouble. His wife is with him.

THURMOND'S BEDS SCRAPPED.

Night Riders Make Second Visit and Make Sure Their Work.

RUIN OVER 550 YARDS.

There Were Half a Dozen of the Gang Who Committed the Outrage.

The plantbeds of John C. Thurmond, near Gracey, were scraped by night riders Thursday night, who hitched their horses outside the field and five or six of them walked across the plowed ground to the tobacco beds.

About 550 yards of plant land were scraped with hoes and the destruction made complete. Some time ago Mr. Thurmond's beds were sowed in grass, but the grass did not entirely destroy the plants.

It is more than likely that the outrage was committed by the same gang that sowed the beds of Kiah Malone, W. F. Cox and W. R. Fourqurean a few miles away.

It is significant that this fresh outbreak occurred the very day the Trigg County paper appeared with a labored denial of previous lawlessness.

NEW INSPECTOR.

Herbert M. Chittenden to Succeed His Brother

Another change has been made by the Kentucky Board of Fire Underwriters. The first was made at Henderson and this time it affects Hopkinsville. Mr. J. E. Chittenden, who has been inspector here since last fall, is to go to Louisville as rating superintendent. He has met with general approval and did his work satisfactorily all round. Mr. Herbert M. Chittenden comes here from Mt. Vernon, Ind., to take the place of his brother.

STILL AT LARGE.

Murderer of Pete Taylor Supposed to be in Tennessee.

Ed Browder, who shot and killed Peter Taylor at Nowstead last Saturday night, while engaged in a crap game with a dozen other negroes, has not been apprehended. It is probable that the murderer made his way into Tennessee.

Eight of the negroes who were supposed to be in the game were arrested Tuesday and were released on bond to appear for trial when the cases are called.

A Strong Delegation Thursday Night.

MANY SPEECHES.

A strong delegation of Lafayette and Bennettsburg citizens came up Thursday night and met with a number of business men to talk about a turnpike from Beverly to Lafayette.

The following gentlemen from LaFayette were present: R. S. Wootton, J. L. Tacker, R. J. Carothers, Walter Garner, Edwin Garner, E. R. Bogard, J. S. Ragdale, Charlie Keatts.

Will Keatts, Frazer Williams, Walter Ezell, Dr. J. H. Marable, Sam Frazer, Lyndon Lyeon, R. J. Carothers, Jr., J. F. Kirkman, R. D. Stapp.

Also these from Bennettsburg: M. J. Cooper, T. L. Moss, Edwin Stevenson, W. J. McGee, Jas. Miles.

Speeches were made by Messrs R. J. Carothers, J. S. Ragdale, M. C. Forbes, Geo. C. Long, Chas. M. Meacham and others and a committee headed by M. C. Forbes was appointed to solicit contributions to the guaranty fund of the proposed pike. LaFayette has raised $5,000 of the $9,000 asked for by the Fiscal Court.

The committee will do all it can by the 16th, when the matter will be laid before the court.

The turnpike to LaFayette is a necessity and the citizens are determined to get it, if hard work and liberal aid will secure it.

Chapter 1.
"Friday, the 13th; I thought as much, if Bob has started, there will be hell, but I will see what I can do." The sound of my voice as I dropped the receiver seemed to part the mists of five years and usher me into the world of Then as though it had never passed on.
I had been sitting in my office, letting the tape slide through my fingers while its every yard spelled "panic" in a constantly rising voice, when they told me that Brownley, the door of the exchange wanted me at the phone, and "quick." Brownley was our junior partner and floor man. He talked with a rush. Stock exchange floor men in panics never let their speech hobble.
"Mr. Randolph, it's sizzling over here, and it's getting hotter every second. It's Bob—that is evident to all. If he keeps up this pace for 20 minutes longer, the sulphur will overflow the street and get into the banks and into the country, and no man can tell how much territory will be burned over by to-morrow. The boys have begged me to ask you to throw yourself into the breach and stay him. They agree you are the only hope now."
"Are you sure, Fred, that this is Bob's work?" I asked. "Have you seen him?"
"Yes, I have just come from his had been fingering the tape, watching five and ten millions crumbling from price values every few minutes, I was sure this was the work of Bob Brownley. No one else in Wall street had the power, the nerve, and the devilish cruelty to rip things as they had been ripped during the last 20 minutes. The night before I had passed Bob in the theater lobby. I gave him close scrutiny and saw the look of which I of all men best knew the meaning. The big brown eyes were set on space; the outer corners of the handsome mouth were drawn hard and tense as though weighted. As I had my wife with me it was impossible to follow him, but when I got home I called up his house and his club, intending to ask him to run up and smoke a cigar with me, but could locate him nowhere. I tried again in the morning without success, but when just before noon the tape began to jump and flash and snarl, I remembered Bob's ugly mood, and all it portended.

Fred Brownley was Bob's youngest brother, 12 years his junior. He had been with Randolph & Randolph from the day he left college, and for over a year had been our most trusted stock exchange man. Bob Brownley, when himself, was as fond of his "baby brother," as he called him, as his beautiful southern mother was of both; but when the devil had posses-

"Mr. Randolph, it's Sizzling Over Here and Getting Hotter Every Second." office, and glad I was to get out. He's on the war-path, Mr. Randolph—uglier than I ever saw him. The last time he broke loose was child's play to his mood to-day. Mother sent me word this morning that she saw last night the moon was coming. He had been up to see her and sisters, and mother thought from his tone he was about to disappear again. When he told me his mood, and I remembered the day, I was afraid he might seek his vent here. Also I heard of his being about town till long after midnight. The minute I opened his office door he flew at me like a panther. I told him I had only dropped in on my rounds for an order, as they were running off right smart, and I didn't know but he might like to pick up some bargains. "Bargains!" he roared, "don't you know the day? Don't you know it is Friday, the 13th? Go back to that hellpit and sell, sell! Sell what and how much? I asked. "Anything, everything. Give the thieves every share they will take, and when they won't take any more, ram as much again down their crops until they spit up all they have been buying for the last three months!" Going out I met Jim Holliday and Frank Swan rushing in. They are evidently executing Bob's orders, and have been pouring Anti-People's out for an hour. They will be on the floor again in a few minutes, so I thought it safer to call you before I started to sell. Mr. Randolph, they cannot take much more of anything in here, and if I begin to throw stocks over, it will bring the gavel inside of ten minutes, and that will be to announce a dozen failures. It's yet 20 minutes to one, and God only knows what will happen before three. It's up to you, Mr. Randolph, to do something, and unless I am on a bad slant, you haven't many minutes to lose."
It was then I dropped the receiver with "I thought as much." As I

The Weather

FOR KENTUCKY: The forecast sent out yesterday was as follows:
Fair Friday and Saturday. Colder Friday night.

The Thaw case went to the jury Wednesday night, but up to yesterday afternoon no verdict had been returned. The jury appeared to be hopelessly hung.

The wets won in the Paris, Ky., election Thursday by a majority of 22 votes. The wets had such a compact organization that they took possession of the polls early and polled their full strength on the start.

Night Riders.

Further information has been received of the visit of the night riders near the Caldwell county line last week. In addition to Pooley Reese, who was called upon in person by 15 or 20 masked, men notes were at the gates of W. H. Butler, Henry Wooley and Edgar Reed, notifying them that they would be allowed three days to join the association. Reed and Wooley have joined and Butler has bought a farm South of Hopkinsville and will leave the neighborhood.

N. L. McCargor received a letter in his delivery box telling him that his membership in the Society of Equity would not do and that he must join the association. The note was written with a pencil on a piece of rough paper. Others are said to have received similar notes. The cardware signed "Night Riders."

Spring Medicine

The best is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best because it does the most good. While it makes the blood pure, fresh and lively, it tones the stomach to better digestion, creates an appetite, stimulates the kidneys and liver, gives new brain, nerve and digestive strength.

An unequalled list of cures—40,366 testimonials in two years—proves its merit.

Seriousness—For those who prefer medicine in tablet form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in chocolate tablets called Sarsaparilla, as well as in the usual liquid form. Sarsaparilla has been found to have the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides securing the same confidence, because only pure drugs being put up by evaporation, breaking, or leakage. EMETIC NEEDED

To Rid the Association of a Dose of Green Apples.

Prizers Who Violate Contract Stipulations Should be Turned Off

Guthrie, Ky., Apr. 13.

TO THE KENTUCKIAN:—

The tobacco organization, in some sections, seems to be in the condition of a boy, who had eaten a lot of green apples, and was trying to disgorge the load from off his stomach. The question is whether it is best to give the boy an emetic to assist nature in throwing up the load of green apples and let him speedily get well or let him groan on in pain and suffer the consequences, some believing that he will get well, others that he will die. After studying the question in all its phases, I am thoroughly of the opinion, that it is best to give the emetic and will now attempt to give my opinions.

In the first place, if this organization cannot be controlled and directed by the selling interest, we have no further use for it, for we are sellers of tobacco, not buyers—bear this in mind. At this time, there are many in our ranks, who are exto-bacco buyers or speculators; these men have always been identified with the buying interest and surrounded with an atmosphere of profit and gain until the trust squeezed them out, and made many of them bankrupt. As soon as these men came into the Association, they sought almost to man for contracts to prize tobacco and obtained them, but as soon as obtained, some of them began to dodge and evade the expressed terms of these contracts, by buying tobacco or driving tobacco from the channels of the Association, into the open market; these men are the green apples we have swallowed. The Association will have to disgorge this indigestible stuff or it will die.

Our Executive Committee and the Logan County Committee have decided to give the organization an emetic by cancelling their contracts, as prizers for the Association. This condition of affairs exists principally in Logan County, Ky., and is giving the management some trouble in adjusting. But the Committee of this county has appointed a Committee to investigate every prizier, in the county, and every one found guilty of a breach of contract, will have to step down and out as a prizier for the Association; they can have no one to blame but themselves. Their violations of the expressed terms on these contracts, were not by accident, they violated them because they wanted to violate them. Shams and pretenses, we cannot afford to have; they must keep these contracts in spirit and in letter and without any smuggling or evasive methods, or quit and quit now. There are but two sides to this question—one is the buyer's side and the other is the seller's side—the buying interest against the selling interest. These, nor no other man ought to be allowed responsible positions of trust on the side of the selling interest, and at the same time, serve the interest of the buying side. We know something about the buying interest organization's ability to take care of themselves to our bitter experience and sorrow and so started our organization strictly, as a seller's organization, so as to be able to cope with this giant on the other side—this being the case, we cannot countenance, with the least degree and acts of any man, that shows that he is serving the interest of the other side, to our detriment and injury.

So let the investigation proceed and let it be thorough and sweeping, with no favoritism or white-wash, for any man, even if it puts every prizier in the county out of business, and we will either get the men to prize our tobacco, who have never been identified with the buying interest, or prize our tobacco ourselves.

But it is remarked by some, that in the event of these prizers are found guilty and their contracts are cancelled, that they will kick out of the traces. Well, if they are going to kick out, because they are not allowed to serve God and Mammon too, let them kick.

It will only show, that they had but one foot within the traces any way, and on the flimsiest pretext in the world could knock that out, and would do it. At least, one of them men is not of that kind, for he made a manly statement to a full house, and gained the sympathy of every one who heard him. He got the statement that he would be as true a member after the contract was cancelled as he had ever been before. As far as I know, he has always been considered a true member. But this is not all that is going to be done.

As there can be no buying of tobacco without some one selling tobacco all the blame cannot attach the buyer alone. The seller must be reckoned with and that is going to be done, just as thorough and sweeping, and devoid of white-wash as in the case of the buyer.

In all cases of business transactions we all demand that the men we deal with keep their contracts. The affairs of the association must be conducted along the same lines. If we succeed at all, it must be along the lines of common-sense business principles. The stock of novelty and sentiment is about exhausted; we must build on reason, common sense and intelligence. "If the right eye offends, pluck it out." All departments of labor, trade and commerce, are closely organized and managed by the very best intelligence. We must meet organization with organization, intelligence with intelligence or else go down helpless at the feet of other organizations. "If thy right arm offend thee, cut it off." Our management has the intelligence and in this evil movement is as brave as Count de Leon and like the white plume of Henry of Navarre, they are waving the banner of our cause in the forefront of the lines of battle, and their clarion notes can be heard to press the fight all along the lines. They are refusing to make any compromises and their martial spirits spur the idea of retreat, much less surrender. Shall cowardice keep us from the front? Shall we play into the hands of the buying interests by selling our tobacco out of the association or patronizing warehouses not properly bonded, or letting men prize our tobacco who are pretenders and counterfeiters. My, my! What are people thinking about, that they are not aware of the injury that they are doing themselves and the organization. But it has been suggested that we pull the bridges off all prizers and let them buy all the tobacco they choose. Yes, and a poor system we would have then, sure enough. I have no hesitancy in saying that a man, who would not keep his plain letter of the contract, willingly entered into, upon his part, would not scruple to substitute his low grade bought tobacco for my high grade association tobacco. The finite mind cannot conceive of the lengths and depths to which these buyers would go in wire-working and smuggling tobacco out of the channels of the association. Why, I even believe they would bootleg it, at least that is the way it looks to my sweet blue eyes. If any one else sees a way to strictly confine all bought and association tobacco in the channels of the association and not divert it from the control of the executive committee, come forward with it and let us at least discuss it and if it should prove a better plan throw down the fences and let any one buy tobacco that wants to. One fact must be kept in mind though, that this is a seller's organization and that it must at all times be able to control all tobacco consigned to it and not only control its sales but control its supply also. Unless it can do this, it is not worth an ounce of goose grease to a tobacco seller. "A wayfaring man, though a fool, may not err therein."

"OLD SHANKS."

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Of The Tobacco Association will Meet Here.

Polk Prince, or Guthrie; J. B. Jackson, of Russellville, and Dr. Dunn, of Robertson county, Tenn., who compose the Advisory Committee of the Planters' Protective Association, were in the city Tuesday, consulting with the members of the Christian County Executive Committee in regard to matters of interest and importance to the association. Their meeting was held in private and much business of importance, it is understood, was transacted.

Mr. C. F. Jarrett, local salesman of the Protective Association, states that while large sales are not as yet being made by him, every day more or less tobacco is being disposed of at the warehouse, and at figures that showed an advance of about 2 cents over last year. Everything is reported to be in a most healthy condition in the affairs of the association and the outlook is encouraging.

The full meeting of the executive committee, which usually is held at Guthrie will be held in this city next time, probably next week.

I was tired and worn out from morning to night, the kidney secretions were irregular, high colored, scalding and deposited a heavy sediment if allowed to stand? I had no energy left and felt generally run down. I was feeling worse than usual when my attention was attracted to an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got a box at L. A. Johnson's drug store and began using them. In a few days I noticed that the secretion had assumed a natural appearance and pain and aching had directly been relieved. By the time I had completed the box there was a wonderful change in my condition. I am glad to state that I am practically cured and Doan's Kidney Pills will be my friend for life."

A Message.
Go forth, O dainty violet,
Unto a maid most tender.
And there upon her lily breast
Breathe softly love I send her!

Breathe softly as you die of bliss
And tell her, blossom, tell her this:
I love her lips, her hair, her eyes;
I hold her love a Paradise.
In which I fain would be the king
And she the queen of everything!

Go forth, O dainty violet,
And take my message to her;
And as you die upon her breast,
Whispered to woo her.

I too, would die upon her breast
If living for her were not best!
Good-by! Remember that you cost
Each dollar and just missed the rest!
Go forth and give grim Fate a whirl—
I've simply GOT to have that girl!

Remember To-day That—

The world is full of trouble made by those who mean all right.

Burrs.

Some men who have cut considerable questionable ice in this world will find the climate too warm in the world to come for the following up of their avocation.

It is said the princess of Wales could earn her living as a stenographer. If she had to be self-supporting. There is nothing so remarkable about this, however. Every morning on my way down town, I see dozens of princesses who do this just because they like it.

Bachelors Beware.
Down in Missouri a bill has been introduced in the legislature making all bachelors between the ages of 21 and 60 years pay a tax of 10 per cent of their earnings into the state treasury.

—News Note.
O men, unwee, who love life free, Unhindered by a shrewish wife, Who joy in clubs and dodge the art Of Cupid with his stinging dart, Fight shy of old Missouri state That taxes high the celibate— They're after you!

They're after you with pad and pen, "When were you born and who and when?" And have you been, since man's estate Devoid of female wit or mate? Just a simple fee And help to lift our treasures! We're after you!"

"If you are forty-five to-day, It means, sir, that you have to pay Eight thousand dollars taxes due Or else what life is a can to you! We don't want bachelors at all Who will not list to Hyman's call— We're after you!"

"But if you fain would dodge the tax Here is a maiden pure as wax, Beyond is shown a girl named Kate Who yearns to save you from your fate! And on your left is Susan Blue Who long to get her hooks on you. We're after you!"

That's just the way they're after you! So pass along the word "Skidoo!" Keep off the grass, seek other scenes And look your money in your jeans. "A ban!" to old Missouri state And "Fruit!" to the celibate! We're onto you!"

MILLINERY MATTERS

There is a distinct satisfaction in knowing that the millinery for the coming season is of such infinite variety of style and shape that while following the latest fashions faithfully, everyone can be well suited. This happy state of affairs prevailed last year, and was so much appreciated that the powers that be in the realm of fashion have evidently determined on the same popular policy once more—certainly a marked amount of favor is allotted to the mushroom brim, but then its softly curved shade is becoming to most faces, and for the rest there are hats of almost startling contrasting size and shape.

Wonderful indeed are some of the new hats designed in Paris for spring wear, and great will be the courage of the wearers of some of them. No design seems too grotesque for originators of millinery to spring on a gullible feminine public. Luckily the majority of women realize the effect of too extraordinary chapeaux and refuse to lend their services to the promoters of the truly ridiculous. Of course there are a few women so beautiful in form and feature and possessed of such grace and chic that no hat could possibly spoil them, but there are not so many of these, and then, too, these women know very well, as a rule, what they may and may not wear to set off their abundant beauty.

In spite, however, of a number of outrageous shapes—and outrageous shapes appear every season in the too great striving for novel millinery—there are many charming hats being imported and also created on this side of the water.

SOME SPRING DRESSES

The popular stripes which fashion has dictated come as a change from the checks which have so long reigned, and are made up in attractive designs which are appropriate both for morning and afternoon wear. To begin with, our illustration, which shows a most exquisite walking gown, demonstrates the possibilities which lie in the wake of these striped goods. The stripes in this dress are

Walking Costume from Striped Cloth, black on a gray ground; and the stripes are sufficient trimming to the plain skirt, except in front, where there are two panels, cut so that the stripes are horizontal, running from waist to hem, narrow at the waist and wide at the feet, and held here and there by groups of three flat silver buttons. The charming little coat is tight-fitting, with short

The earlier hats of any season are usually modes of the moment only. Many are bought by women whose winter millinery has either lost its freshness or has become an old story to them, and they purchase several hats merely to vary or freshen their ensemble, and as they buy them for a few weeks' wear only, they take whatever is offered, without, as a rule, sufficient attention to the style or its becomingness.

The Parisian with her marvelously dressed hair may venture on many a hat that, perched above the too often careless coiffures of other women, would prove fatal to the slightest degree of chic. The French woman shows no tag ends of hair. Brilliant lace and hair nets may be used, but the effect is perfect. In Paris, fortunately, the even Marcel wave is out, and all waving is done in the loose, large, irregular fashion so much more natural and so much more pleasing to the eye that has not lost its appreciation of the really beautiful. Of course comparatively few women look as well with their hair brushed smooth and plain, and those few should make the most of it. Too often the hair is completely ruled by artificial waving, and while its owner is still young her hair is thin, uneven, and lusterless, save when artificial luster is applied. As a matter of fact, and woman whose hair is regularly waved with iron should at least have her scalp carefully treated by an expert as often as once a week, and twice is better, else by the time she is 50 she will have no hair worth having growing on her head.

haques, which start at either side from the pointed fronts, cut horizontally, which continue the panels of the skirt, and are similarly adorned with groups of three buttons. Tiny white satin revers break the line, and accentuate the contrast of color with the "royal blue" velvet waistcoat, which is delicately braided with silver cord at the edge. The coat-shaped sleeves have a band of the horizontal stripes running from shoulder to waist on the outside of the arm; and the cuffs also show the same disposition. A shirt with a linen collar and a white satin tie gives a smartly masculine touch, and the dress is happily completed by a toque of "royal blue" velvet with a mass of cock's plumes. For those who do not care for a coat with haques, the design would look equally well with an Eton jacket or bolero.

On looking over a number of exclusive and very costly models for early spring wear, I have been struck by the prominence in a number of cases of tight "coat" sleeves. This was notably the case in connection with some extra long afternoon coats. The sleeves of which I am speaking are fashioned like those of a man's coat, and reach just below the elbow. At the shoulder they are almost entirely flat and the effect is wonderfully neat and subdued. I think they used to wear just such sleeves as these in the year 1882 or 1883. Photographs taken at that time portray them.

Buttons become more important and remarkable every day, and are used with conscious care as part of the gown's trimmings. Some are exquisitely painted miniatures on ivory, either portrait heads or cherubic faces. Then there are exquisitely fine little embroidery of flowers, mounted as buttons. In the center of circles of steel or of silver. Some very pretty buttons in an iridescent blue on a beige face-cloth dress proved on inspection to be of pottery. Every sort of ordinary unpretentious sleeve, especially the amethyst, is set in a surround of silver or silver-gilt,

LAST HOPE

Knocked Into Smithereens
By Tuesday Night's Frost.

Strawberries, Peaches, Pears
and Plums Killed Alike.

If you have any canned fruit left over you will be wise in holding it for another year. The very heavy frost of Tuesday night killed the last hope of anything like a half crop of fruit this year, for it was so heavy that when the sun rose yesterday morning it took several minutes to make an impression on the evidences of the Frost King's visit.

A high, cold wind was blowing pretty much all of Tuesday afternoon and wraps of all kind were as necessary for comfort as at almost any time during the winter. The wind from the west was laden with apple, peach and other blossoms picked up on its way from "over the river" and as they blew through the air, they reminded one of snow flurries.

Early vegetables were not given a "living chance" unless they were covered, and even then the chances were small, as the temperature was so low that tender shoots were killed. Wheat was doubtless in bad condition for a heavy frost and in some sections of the county it was reported as looking yellow. Tuesday night's frost certainly did not improve it any and may have injured it considerably, though we have not yet heard reports to that effect.

Some think that all the strawberries we eat this spring will be brought in from the South. Mr. Coyner, who is an extensive grower of berries and other fruits, said Monday that he gathered a bowl of nice berries for dinner Sunday from under the leaves, but thought they would be the last. He said that about all the peaches were killed on his place, long since, hundreds of young trees having been killed.

Corn, of which very little has been planted could not have been materially injured as but little had come up. Tobacco plants probably have not been injured as the canvas still covers them, but they were doubtless set back by being chilled.

Taken altogether, things generally were not at all encouraging before Jack frost's visit but they are less so now.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

LOUISVILLE WOMEN

Will Make War on Unightly Billboards.

The Woman's Outdoor Art League of Louisville are going to work in earnest to beautify the city. One of the first moves in that direction will be to have all objectionable billboards removed. Then they are to have an "Arbor Day," when school children will be given a holiday and assist in tree planting. Wisdom would direct that Hopkinsville inaugurate improvements of like character. Let's get out of the way of letting every generation take care of itself—it's mossbackism, pure and simple.

The Green Bug.

Warren county is uneasy over the appearance of the "green bug," which destroyed the winter wheat in Texas to such an extent that replanting was necessary. In different parts of Warren county winter oats and orchard grass have been entirely destroyed. We have not heard of the appearance of the bug in Christian.

Are the days for the Musical Festival in Hopkinsville. A chorus of 500 voices, three night and two day performances by Innes Band, will be sufficient to move the whole population of this section of the country to this city. All roads will lead to Hopkinsville on those days.

Livery Change

I have bought the livery business of Evitts & Courtney, on North Main street, and would be glad to have my old friends and customers call on me. I am going to do a general livery business, keep some of the best help, board horses, furnish the very best rigs and guarantee satisfaction in every way. I am the oldest man in the business in the city and am not afraid to make the assertion that I will please all.

THE KENTUCKIAN will send to the Jamestown Exposition the four most popular young women in Christian County. The Kentuckian will pay every cent of expense, including railroad fare; Pullman fare; meals on train; hotel bills, street car fare; admission to grounds and amusement concessions; side trips to points in the vicinity of the Exposition grounds. The contest is open to any young lady making her home in Christian county. For each year's subscription to the Kentuckian at $2.00 the subscriber will be entitled to cast 40 votes.

Our contest began Nov.

"BOB" NORWOOD

Comes Back to Hopkinsville to Reside.

The many old friends of Robt. W. Norwood will be glad to learn that he is again to be a citizen of this place.

Thursday at a meeting of the directors of the Climax Milling Co. Mr. Norwood was unanimously elected secretary and treasurer of the company. Mr. Norwood, it is expected, will move his family to the city as soon as practicable, but he is expected to come in a few weeks and enter upon the discharge of his duties.

Mr. Norwood has been traveling salesman for the Henkle-Nesbit Shoe Co. for twelve years or more, with headquarters at Evansville. He visited Hopkinsville occasionally, and its rapid growth in population and business was very gratifying to him and he has been wanting to come back and be one of us for a long time, and he is most welcome.

FAIR RATING

Is all Hopkinsville Merchants Are Demanding.

E. F. Scott, an expert in fire insurance, is in the city with the view of remedying any defects he may discover in the ratings that have been in force here for some time.

Business men have been agitating the question with the Kentucky Board of Fire Underwriters for some time, and the board had a man here the latter part of last year engaged in making a map of the city. There is no doubt that he did his work conscientiously and well, and the State Board knows "how the land lies" here as well as if they had been here in person.

Mr. Scott will be here for some time and on his report will rest the question as to whether a new and more equitable rating will be inaugurated.

At Hotel Latham.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet in the parlors of Hotel Latham this afternoon at 2:30. A full attendance is desired.

JOHN KELLY MUST ANSWER

Court of Appeals Blocks the Motion to Dismiss the Case.

CASE WAS REMANDED.

Kelly Must Now Face a Trial on the Merits of the Case

Judge Barker writing, the court reversed the Trigg Circuit Court in a case of the Commonwealth against John W. Kelly Tuesday and remanded it for trial. Appellee Kelly was indicted in Trigg county charged with embezzling certain notes and money in his hands as Master Commissioner of the Trigg Circuit Court. The court below sustained a demurrer and dismissed the indictment. The court says the indictment is a good and proper document and that Kelly must stand trial on the merits of the case.

MISSING MAN

Has Not Yet Been Heard of by Chief Roper.

Nothing has yet been heard of Charles Kleindeinst, who left Chicago on the 26th of March to go to Birmingham, Ala. Before leaving Chicago he told his brother that he would not locate in Birmingham if things did not look encouraging and would go to some part of Iowa, where he had once been in business. His brother, Stanley Kleindeinst, wrote Chief Roper that the missing man expected to stop over here one day and that he had considerable money when he left home. Foul play is feared by Stanley Kleindeinst, who lives at 37 East 25th street, Chicago.

About 300 Delegates Will be at Madisonville.

Madisonville, Ky., April 11.—Preparations are being made to entertain a large number of delegates that will attend the Young Men's Christian Association convention for the western district of Kentucky, which convenes here Friday for a session of three days. The convention will be held at the new county building, which has just been completed at a cost of $25,000, and is one of the prettiest buildings in the state. A big banquet will be given to the visitors in the gymnasium room of the building Friday night by the ladies of the city. About three hundred delegates will be here.

Baseball.

Hopkinsville may have some good baseball this season, after all. The Secretary of the Paducah Athletic Association has been in correspondence with this city, Cairo, Fulton and other towns in regard to some fine games, as we learn from the Paducah-News Democrat.

Points About People

PROWSE—Mr. John P. Prowse has also caught the building fever and is preparing to replace the old dilapidated cottage on the South Main Street lot adjoining his residence with a handsome and modern cottage, which will be occupied by one of his sons.

LINDSAY—Mrs. Amelia Lindsay, of Madisonville, has rented the R. S. Green cottage on South Main street and will move to Hopkinsville this month. As soon as she can do so, she will build a handsome home on her lot at 1010 South Main street, the lot adjoining Mr. W. D. Stowe.

SHELTON—Mr. Geo. E. Shelton, of Clarksville, has bought out Mr. Helbern, the theatrician man, and will greatly improve the show and make daily changes in the pictures shown. These movable picture shows are becoming the rage all over the country. Nashville has 19, Clarksville 2, Bowling Green 2 and no town is up to date without one or more of them.

FRYER—Mr. E. B. Fryer, agent of the American Express Co., has received notice that he will shortly be transferred to Chicago, Ill. Mr. Fryer is a courteous, obliging young gentleman and a capable business man and during the time he has been agent here has made many friends for himself and the company.

RICHARDS—The home of Mr. H. C. Richards, on South Main street, has been wonderfully improved by the addition of handsome colonial porches above and below and other rooms in the rear. It is now one of the most attractive places in that part of the city.

EDMUNDS—Mr. J. T. Edmunds has cut down some of the shade trees in his yard on South Main and is preparing to make improvements in the family residence.

THE SPARROWS,

Not the Robbins and Song Birds, Targets for Boys.

Robbins, red birds, cat-birds and blue jays are now seen and heard in the city, but, strange to say, boys are making war on them, and with slingshot and air gun are said to be killing them off at a rapid rate. If the boys would turn their "artillery" on the pestiferous English Sparrow it would be all right. Sparrows are a nuisance and should be exterminated, but here is the law which protects other birds. Read it, boys, and watch out, or you will get into trouble.

"No person shall at any time catch, kill or pursue with such intent, or have in possession after the same has been caught or killed, any thrush, meadow lark, finch, martin, swallow, woodpecker, flicker,oriole, red bird, tanager, cat-bird, bluebird, or other song or insectivorous bird, except where the same shall be destructive to the fruit or grain crops."

Why pay rent when you can secure a home in the Hopkinsville Building and Loan Association.
